			underpinned by the need to tackle structural inequality, racism and the causes and impacts of climate change. The Foundation will no longer fund projects outside of the new aims. The Foundation will continue to award unrestricted core and project grants and has announced that under the new strategy it intends to provide larger and longer-term grants, as well as strategic support. This new approach will mean that the Foundation will be making fewer grants but will be giving more support to help grants achieve better, and more lasting, results. New applications are accepted on a rolling basis starting from 7 October 2020. Link: https://esmeefairbairn.org.uk/
NET / Foundation Scotland Response, Recovery & Resilience Fund	Grants of between £1,000 and £5,000 available	Open	Whilst the first phase of funding focussed on meeting communities most immediate needs, the fund is now focussing on Recovery. As some lockdown restrictions are lifted this phase of funding will support organisations to continue their operations in the 'new normal', to re-establish or redesign their activities to comply with new regulations in addition to providing emergency support for those who need it most. The focus of Recovery funding is to provide the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for the ongoing needs of vulnerable people to ensure their health and wellbeing is maintained • Support to groups and activities supporting vulnerable people self-isolating (the elderly, people with pre-existing medical conditions etc.) • Support for foodbanks and organisations working to combat hardship caused by the pandemic including child hunger • Support to aid community response coordination • Support for volunteer costs for new and existing organisations • Additional costs to support a move to remote working and adapting services delivered in the wider community • Additional financial support as required for organisations providing emotional support, mental health and wellbeing and bereavement support Grants of between £1000 and £5000 are available. Due to a limit in funds organisations are encouraged to submit their online application at their earliest opportunity to avoid disappointment. Link: https://www.foundationscotland.org.uk/programmes/community-response,-recoveryresilience-fund/
